

An overwhelming percentage of New Jersey residents have made it clear that they do not want to be harassed by telemarketers. I respectfully request that you do not in any way weaken the existing New Jersey Do Not Call Program (Telephone Consumer Protection Act).